

Cam Hui

Qwest Investment Management Corp. is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Cam Hui to the company's Board of Advisors.

Cam Hui brings to the board his broad business experience, knowledge and insight as well as a diverse background in investment management, equity quantitative research and experience in all phases of investment processes.

Mr. Hui was employed by Merrill Lynch in New York City as a Relative Value and Technical Research Analyst. Before joining Merrill Lynch, Cam Hui held portfolio manager positions with Graham Capital Management LLC and Batterymarch Financial Management, Inc. Mr. Hui also held positions with Wood Gundy Inc. (now CIBC World Markets).

Mr. Hui obtained his Bachelor of Science degree (Honours) in Computer Science in 1980 at the University of British Columbia, and passed the Canadian Securities Course in 1985 and the CFA Charter in 1989.

Qwest  Investment Management