Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Investment Objective and Strategies

The Fund seeks to provide investors with long-term capital appreciation by investing primarily in equity securities of individual companies, as well as exchange trade funds, listed on securities exchanges in North America.

The Fund will invest in the sectors or industry groups that represent attractive quantitative, fundamental and technical characteristics relative to the broad North American equities markets. As part of this tactical investment strategy, the Fund may, in certain economic and market environments, undergo relatively quick shifts in industry and sector allocations, as well as overall asset allocation. In addition, the Fund may, on occasion, partially or completely exit individual equities, and the stock market in general, in favor of cash and/or short-term money market securities.

Risk

The Fund is suitable for investors seeking income and long-term capital appreciation with a tolerance for medium risk. General risks of an investment in the Fund are detailed in the Simplified Prospectus and include capital gain risk, concentration risk, market risk, currency risk, derivatives risk, foreign investment risk, class risk, interest rate risk, large transaction risk, among others.

There were no significant changes to the investment objectives and strategies that affected the Fund’s overall level of risk during the reporting period. The risks of investing in the Fund and the suitability of the Fund for particular investor’s remains as discussed in the Simplified Prospectus.

Results of Operations

The Fund commenced operations in March 2016. During the year ended December 31, 2020, the Fund issued 8,384 Series A shares, 114,700 Series F shares and 9,894 Series I shares; during the year then ended, the Fund redeemed 2,424 Series A shares, 84,524 Series F shares and 24,038 Series I shares. As at December 31, 2020, 135,131 Series A shares, 706,613 Series F shares and 201,754 Series I shares were outstanding. During the year ended December 31, 2020, the Fund realized a gain of $393,557 from the disposition of securities.

For the year ended December 31, 2020, the Fund earned dividend income of $331,138. Total expenses before expense reimbursements were $565,247 comprised mainly of $205,342 in management fees (calculated daily at an annual rate of 2.50% of the NAV of Series A shares, 1.50% of the NAV of Series F shares and 0.75% of the NAV of Series I shares), $70,202 in shareholder recordkeeping and fund accounting fees, $33,515 in transaction cost, $60,208 in audit fees, $15,559 in custodial fees, $85,010 in foreign withholding taxes and $26,100 in filing fees.

Net realized gains are $393,557 and $176,354 for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively. Unrealized appreciation of investments was $2,162,151 for the year ended December 31, 2020 and unrealized appreciation of investments was $60,630 for the year ended December 31, 2019.

At December 31, 2020, net assets attributable to holders of redeemable shares for Series A shares was $1,947,167 or $14.41 per share, for Series F shares was $10,701,360 or $15.14 per share and for Series I shares was $3,169,411 or $15.71 per share.

Recent Developments

In the second half of 2020 the Fund made a shift in positioning. The data showed that the market no longer favored COVID-19-friendly stocks. The Fund, having already moved some of its positioning to growth stocks on trend and earnings in Q2, continued this movement as companies like Netflix, JD.com, etc. hit our sell signal. One specific company in this category was Zoom Video (ZM). Zoom had become the Fund's largest position and best performing position by mid-Q3. As a risk management strategy, the Manager's sold into strength in August and continued to reduce exposure to ZM until it hit the sell signal at the end of December and the positions was flattened for a total gain of 239% in nine months.

Gold had been the darling of the Fund for the first half of the year. The second half of the year brought a pullback in gold. The Fund sold some of its gold position as well as all of its silver position capturing gains in both (FNV.TO +14%, PAAS.TO +40%). These were replaced partly by companies with great earnings and momentum and secondly with Grayscale Bitcoin (GBTC). The Managers believe part of the decline in Gold is due to Bitcoin taking much of the investment interest in hedging assets. Bitcoin is uncorrelated to the markets and has gained institutional interest and validity. It acts as a store of value in a zero interest and currency debasing environment.

Though the Fund primarily invests in US Companies the USD has not fared well vs the CAD and thus the Fund has sought to reduce the negative effects of the falling US dollar. To that end 35% of the Fund is in non-USD investments. The Manager's note that the USD/CAD pair is moved two standard deviations away from its mean in early December so mean reversion in 2021 is probable.

Related Party Transactions

Pursuant to the amended and restated master management agreement, the Manager is entitled to an annual management fee of 2.50% of the net asset value of Series A shares, 1.50% of the net asset value of Series F shares and 0.75% of the net assets value of Series I of the Fund, calculated daily and payable monthly in arrears. For the year ended December 31, 2020, the Fund incurred $205,342 in management fees of which $21,529 was payable at December 31, 2020.

In order for the Fund to maintain a competitive position with other mutual funds with respect to operating expenses charged to the Fund, AlphaDelta Management Corp. ("AlphaDelta"), an affiliate of Qwest Investment Fund Management Ltd. (the "Manager"), has agreed at its discretion to pay for some of the operating expenses of the Fund. AlphaDelta has absorbed a total of $14,967 of the operating expenses of the Fund for the year ended December 31, 2020.

⁽²⁾ The portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Manager manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a portfolio turnover rate is in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gain in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between turnover rate and the performance of a portfolio.
